

---

6 Vik Muniz: Between Illusion and Memory by Marguerite Feitlowitz

Using nontraditional material, this inventive Brazilian artist captures the light and dark sides of his subjects in enduring images

---

16 Come Together at the Cornerstone by Caleb Bach

A nonprofit organization in New Mexico restores historic adobe structures while providing an opportunity for communities to reaffirm cultural values

---

24 Equine Allies in the New World by Louis Werner

Inspiring myths and legends, the horses of the conquistadors played an important role in Spain's victory over the Indians

---

30 In The Fold of Sacred Summit Text and photographs by Ricardo Carrasco Stuparich

A trekker on a little-known route to Ausangate mountain in Peru's southeastern cordillera marvel at the natural wonders and serenity of daily life

---

38 Listening to the Language of the Land by David A. Taylor

Researchers are applying indigenous traditional knowledge in innovative efforts to improve the environment and health care

---

46 Author of His Own Destiny by Celia Sankar Photographs by Clément Allard

Trinidad-born writer Neil Bissoondath rejects cultural stereotyping, focusing instead on the rights of individuals to shape their identities

---